2.6.2

Attainment of programme outcomes and course outcomes are evaluated by the institution.

Programme and course outcomes are introduced to the students at the start of every course. The faculty of every subject explains the course objectives, evaluation pattern, marking scheme etc. to the students. Following are the evaluation process of PO, PSO and CO for the graduate and post graduate course.

For Post-Graduate Courses

- (i) Seminar presentation
- (ii) Internal Exams
- (iii) Assignments
- (iv) Final University Exam

Graduate Courses

- (i) Internal Exam
- (ii) Final University Exam

Apart from the formal evaluation prescribed by the university, there are other methods adopted to ensure each programme and course outcome is evaluated. Which include:

- (i) Short quizzes in objective model
- (ii) Home assignments
- (iii) Minor projects
- (iv) Peer teaching
- (v) Field/Project work for environment studies
- (vi) Oral exams
- (vii) Periodical assessment based on tests
- (viii) The marks of internal exams are uploaded online to the university. The Institute provides opportunities to students to exhibit their understanding through the medium of expression i.e. oral or written.
