The maximum period for full-time Ph.D. research is five years, after which the registration shall automatically lapse.

The supervising teacher shall collect and keep the transfer certificate of the candidate so as to ensure that they do not undergo any other course either full time or part time before the submission of thesis.

Part-time research scholars working/ residing outside the headquarters of the supervising teachers shall spend a period of at least six months at a stretch or in not more than three instalments at the centre of research before they are allowed to submit the thesis.

Affiliation fee of Rs.400/- shall be remitted along with the research fee. The research scholars except SC/ST Candidates shall remit an annual fee of Rs.1,000/- for meeting the expenses towards the conduct of open defence.

1. The course work of six months duration is introduced for all Ph.D. Programmes. There will be three papers for the course work with one paper on Research Methodology and the other two papers related to the area of research. Candidates having M.Phil. Degrees are exempted from writing the examination of Research Methodology.

The syllabus for the papers will be framed by the Supervising teacher and approved by the Doctoral Committee. Examinations will be conducted at the end of six months from the date of registration.

Only after passing the examination of the coursework, the Ph.D. thesis can be submitted. A maximum of three attempts will be allowed for passing the examination of the course work. Those who do not pass the examination of the course work within two years from the date of registration will not be allowed to continue the programme. This is applicable to full-time and part-time researchers.

2. A Pre-submission seminar conducted in the Department/Research Centre is one of the requirements for submission of thesis.

The pre-submission will be organized in the concerned Departments - Research Centres and will be conducted by a Board consisting of the Doctoral Committee and an external expert from outside the Department/Research Centre. Recommendation of the Board has to be included in the thesis.

3. One publication in an approved journal and one presentation in a National/International Seminar is also a pre requisite for submission of thesis.

4. The above regulations will be applicable to those who register for Ph.D. research from July 2009 onwards.

All full-time research scholars are eligible to apply for University Junior Research Fellowship with effect from the date of registration within three months of the date of this order.

A copy of the rules regarding the payment of fees is enclosed.

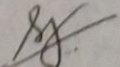

Orders are issued accordingly.
