The Ethics Policy of the college stipulates that

1. all students be instructed in the basic core values that govern human society-
Love, Universal Brotherhood, Integrity, Compassion, Honesty and Selflessness.
2. students being guided in ethical conduct be inspired to follow these principles through talks, direct interactions and involved participation.
3. time be set aside in the operational schedule of the institution for instructing students in ethical practices.
4. the mode of instruction must be inclusive, participative and amicable.
5. the students must be given ample time to reflect and debate on modes of ethical conduct.
6. while attending ethics classes and related programmes is ideal, it will not be considered mandatory to attend these initiatives in order to obtain any document indicating status-quo or qualification from the institution.

The institution aims to inculcate the following attributes in its students through the instructions in ethical conduct:

- Social Commitment
- Compassion
- Sharing
- Liberal outlook
- Inclusivity
- Generosity
- Participation for social, cultural and economic transformation
- Spreading the joy of Knowledge and Enlightenment

The realization of these attributes is apparent in the activities of the students.

Over the years, the college has organized Blood Donation drives under the aegis of the NSS and other committed organisations such as Terumo Penpol in which the students of the college participated whole-heartedly.

The college has also organised medical camps for the villages in the vicinity, with participation by the students.

The students of the college have organised food festivals and donated the money collected to the Regional Cancer Centre, Thiruvananthapuram.

There are regular food donation drives to Old Age homes such as Akasha Paravakal as well as outreach programmes among the needy.

The students collect White Gifts every Christmas and donate the same to the needy to spread cheer.

The social awareness and social responsibility quotient among the students is very high through the regular observance of festivals of national importance and through Gandhian values.

The students collected a sum of rupees eleven thousand and twenty thousand in 2018 and 2020 respectively to donate to the Dhwayah Transgender Arts and Cultural Society

The Dhwayah Transgender Arts and Cultural Society performed programmes in the college on these occasions and received a very warm welcome from the students.

The students actively raise consciousness regarding women's rights, climate change, voter rights so as to ensure social equity.

Classes on ethical examination practices have ensured zero malpractice in exams- both internal and external.

The students have regularly contributed to the charitable ventures of the college.

The students of the college were at the forefront of the volunteer services during the two floods that affected Kerala. They contributed materially as well.

The students of the college participated in Covid-19 relief initiatives through ventures such as sanitizer making.
